SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1946, thirteen excited Kindergarteners began their school days. Their teacher was Mrs. Olson. Roll call was answered by Mary Ellen Weyer, Joan Wood, Joyce Haerther, Geraldine Haerther, Judith Whelan, Norma Gefaller, Karl Wieditz, David Kreutner, Virgil Krug, Minnard Longfield, Larry Mitchell, and Junior Steinke.

Our first grade teacher was Mrs. Lewis. We gained Kathrine Hartung, Karen Roberts, Galen Glick, and Ronnie Young. We lost Joan Wood, Norma Gefaller, David Kreutner, Junior Steinke, and Judith Whelan.

During the second grade our teacher was still Mrs. Lewis. We lost Karen Roberts, and Larry Mitchell.

Our third grade teacher was Mrs. Reynolds. Our only change was the loss of Mary Ellen Weyer.

Mrs. Guetzgo was our teacher as we entered fourth grade. We gained Ellen O'Kelly, and Marilyn Readnour. Our class now numbered eleven.

In the fifth grade our teacher was Mrs. McNamara. We lost Galen Glick and Karl Wieditz who left to attend parochial school and Kathrine Hartung. We gained Arlene Knapp.

As we entered sixth grade our teacher was Mrs. Edgeton. We lost Geraldine Haerther, Joyce Haerther, and Virgil Krug who left to attend parochial school and gained Phyllis Reid.

Our teacher in seventh grade was Mrs. Speas. We lost Ellen O'Kelly, Phyllis Reid, and Marilyn Readnour.

As we enter eighth grade, our class moved into high school. We gained Ellen O'Kelly and Jim Starns and lost Ronnie Young. Our class now numbered five.

In the fall of 1955, fourteen brave freshmen entered high school, Mr. Kempf was our class sponsor. We gained Marilyn Haerther, Joyce Haerther, Geraldine Haerther, Arlene Bader, Delores Krug, Galen Glick, Virgil Krug, Robert Waterman, and Alan Behrens from parochial school and Barbara Lenius. We lost Jim Starns, and during the year we lost Joanna Ness and Barbara Lenius and gained David Kreutner. The best memory of our freshman year was initiation.

Mr. Kempf was again our class sponsor in our sophomore year. We gained Jim Starns and Denny Ealy. During the year we lost Denny Ealy.

In our Junior year our class sponsors were Mrs. Fischer and Miss Box. Our class stayed the same all year numbering fourteen. Our Junior Class play, "Finders Creepers," was presented in November of 1957 and we planned the Junior-Senior Banquet that we held in May, 1958.

Our class sponsors for our Senior year were Mr. Timmons, and Mrs. Fleckenstein. This year we gained Jean Bennett and lost Jim Starns. Minnard Longfield was the only member of the class to go all thirteen years to Atkins High School.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Senior class of '59 of the Atkins High School of Atkins, Iowa, being of sound mind and memory do make, publish, and declare this our Last Will and Testament.

Galen Glick wills his cool head to Larry Hilton and his 4-door jet to Drivers Training Class. (Beware-transmissions go easily.)

Alan Behrens wills his ability to keep training rules to Doug "Baby Face" Miles and his ability to get along with Coach to Stan Quass.

Arlene Bader wills her likings for past A. H. S. grads to Bev Cowan and her ability to drive the Volkswagon to Carol Rinderknecht.

Jean Bennett wills her big feet to Tom Lange (and Tom needs them) and her technique of rolling eyeballs to Jim Kreutner.

Joyce Haerther wills her eyelashes to Harold Bennett and her cheer-leading ability to Janet McGregor.

Geraldine Haerther wills her ability in sports to Terry Stelling and her quiet ways to Barb Rinderknecht.

Marilyn Haerther wills her musical ability to Gary Marti and he can also have her glasses because she doesn't need them.

Virgil Krug lets Barb Semelroth have his Pontiac (careful with it) and his Oliver "66" to the school since they always seem to need a tractor.

David Kreutner wills his ability to stay home nights to Norman Popenhagen and his ability to be wide awake in classes to Larry Rinderknecht.

Delores Krug wills her ability to study out-side of school hours to Tom Cranston and her rides with Galen she gives to any girl daring enough to take them.

Ellyn O'Kelly leaves her typing ability to Inez Krug and her baby-sitting jobs to Bill Hartkemeyer.

Bob Waterman wills his ability to be late to school every morning to Bud Humphrey and his quiet voice to Dellene Johnson.

Arlene Knapp wills her black hair to Louise Wendel and her fingernails to Judy Switzer.

Minnard Longfield wills his big build to Loren Kreutner and his smart remarks in English class to anyone who wants to risk getting in trouble.

Lawyers: Doo Little and Sit Moore.

Washington Bulletin

1959 SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Atkins, Iowa (AP)---David Kreutner, President of the United States, attended a meeting of his graduation class of 14 and reminised over their high school years. What the students wanted to be, and what they turned out to be--is, in most cases, quite different. President Kreutner said he found the reunion to be quite enjoyable. He feels that the people would be interested in knowing about his class mates, since many are well-known public figures.

fesses that his ambition was to learn to play golf!

If this man look confused, it is because he's always running around in circles. And to think he always wanted to be the Hula-Hoop Champion!

Here is Miss Bader. She wanted to be a Champion Popcorn Popper, but ended up as an old maid.

Here's a girl whose ambition was fulfilled. Miss Bennett wanted to be caught and she was! You may write to her at Sing-Sing, 421987635.

Here's a famous couple! The girl, Miss Krug, had a life-long ambition to become hitched, and now she is a Professional Hitch-Hiker. The man who picks up hitch-hikers is Mr. Glick, who always told everyone about his desire to get a Red Ford. Notice the Green Hudson in the picture.

Well, how did this guy get on this page? He wanted to become a Millionaire, but ended up as a extra joker in a deck of cards.

This man's ambition was to work in the salt mines, but he now works in a pretzel factory, shaking salt on pretzels! Surely you remember Robert Waterman!

Hmm! I'd say this picture belonged in Ripley's Believe it Or Not!

Miss Knapp wanted to be a dear(Two-Legged) hunter, but she ended up growing antlers.

Ahh! Here is that world famous New York Playboy! Mr. Krug confessed he always wanted to be an assistant to Scrooge McDuck but I think he looks happy with his present occupation.

Another of the president's classmates is the well-known torch singer, Miss Patrice Haerther, better known as Geraldine by her friends. She really wanted to put out the fire in the Statue of Liberty's torch, but I guess she's satisfied with her life as it is.

Mrs. Superman-nee O'Kelly is getting ready to take off on another adventure. Her aim was to become a jet pilot!

This is the Coach of the Harlem Globe Trotters. Miss Haerther's aim was to travel around the world.

Miss Haerther is now living on an Indian Revation. Her goal was to become a ticket Reservationist in the TWA office.
